True. Easy. Fun. Just for boys. Get started-today!

Bought this for my 10 year old and was a little hesitant that he would be interested. After explaining the reasoning and reading together the first few nights, he is still reading on his own every night. The stories are very helpful to engage interest and relate the day's devotion to real life. Happy I bought it.

This book of devotions, especially for boys has been a wonderful addition to our lives, and has helped me to instill christian values and character in my son in a way that he enjoys, and looks forward to. He is so enthusiastic, and pulls the book out on his own every night. He is eager to read the discussion questions, and actively engages in discussion. Often the scripture reading leads us into even broader discussions about God and his message and promise to us...and all that entails. I am very pleased to have this book, and will recommend it to anyone raising young boys.

We have done bedtime devotions and prayers with our boys since they were tiny. This devotional book has quickly become one of my favorites. I love how after the story, it gives a verse to memorize and relates it all to the child reading or hearing it by asking, "What about you?"

Not what I was expecting. Wish they'd be more descriptive in the sect of this book

For older than 8.

We love this devotional! It's stories are easy to relate to. They are short but offer a great lesson with each one.

Gave to someone for there child. Have not heard any reviews on book.

My son loves his devotion book.
