Synopsis

With San Francisco under siege and every cop a suspect, the Women’s Murder Club must risk their lives to save the city-and each other. With a beautiful baby daughter and a devoted husband, Detective Lindsay Boxer can safely say that her life has never been better. In fact (for a change), things seem to be going well for all the members of the Women’s Murder Club as they gather to celebrate San Francisco Medical Examiner Claire Washburn’s birthday. But the party is cut short when Lindsay is called to a gruesome crime scene, where a woman has been murdered in broad daylight. As Lindsay investigates, shocking video footage of another crime surfaces. A video so horrific that it shakes the city to its core. Their faces obscured by masks, the cold blooded criminals on the tape could be anyone-and now all of Lindsay’s co-workers are suspects. As a rash of violence sweeps through San Francisco, and public fear and anger grows, Lindsay and her friends must risk their lives in the name of justice-before it’s too late. With shocking twists and riveting suspense, 14TH DEADLY SIN, proves yet again that when it comes to suspense fiction, in the words of Jeffrey Deaver: "nobody does it better" than James Patterson.

Customer Reviews

FANS LOVE THE WOMEN’S MURDER CLUB!"Those who haven’t read any of the novels in the Women’s Murder Club series are cheating themselves."Ã¢â ¬â ¢BookReporter.com"I can’t believe how good Patterson is, whether he’s doing a Washington police yarn or traveling a different road with a female narrator. He is always on the mark. I have never begun a Patterson book and been able to put it down."Ã¢â ¬â ¢Larry King, USA Today

James Patterson has had more New York Times bestsellers than any other writer, ever, according to Guinness World Records. Since his first novel won the Edgar Award in 1977 James Patterson's books have sold more than 300 million copies. He is the author of the Alex Cross novels, the most popular detective series of the past twenty-five years, including Kiss the Girls and Along Came a Spider. He writes full-time and lives in Florida with his family.

Totally left hanging at end. If I could demand a refund I would. I have read all of the Murder Club books and loved them. Patterson and Paetro got too cute and smug with this ending. Totally annoying.

Fair warning! This book doesn't have an ending! It's a cliff hanger and I don't appreciate that in a book! By the time the next one is published I will have completely forgotten the story line! Shame on Mr. Patterson!!I read this as a Kindle book so I don't know the page numbering, but 13% of this book is an excerpt from another Patterson book.

Ok, I am so angry right now I can hardly write this. The end leaves you up in the air and you have to buy the next book to find out what happened. That is just not fair.

Finish the story, Patterson. Getting real tired of being left in cliffhanger mode just so I need to buy another book. You've done it with Cross and now in this series. I will not be a pawn in your feed game any more. Very bad move with the fans who have stayed loyal to you.

I have read this series from Book 1. I'm always excited to get the next one and start reading. I'm soooo disappointed in this one. I found myself flipping the pages. I've never done that with all the 13 books before this. Mr. James Patterson, did YOU write this? Hohummmm....The whole story was so boring! Even the parts where the action was supposed to be happening felt rushed. I felt cheated at the end. So disappointing.

Big disappointment. Found myself sick of Yuki's sudden do-gooder turn, and so I scrolled past those chapters as fast as I could. As usual, the Boxer character did the heavy lifting in this story, but it wasn't enough. The book was terrible.

There was no conclusive ending! If this is a literary cliffhanger for a 15th book, it is poorly planned and delivered. I expected better from Patterson.

The story just ended, there wasn't any conclusion. I do not like books that leave you hanging this much (unless for some reason my Kindle app didnt get the entire story).
