Customer Reviews

I bought this book because I found a great monologue in the play, and my acting teacher wanted us to have a hard copy of the monologue we chose. I read through the whole play, and was really blown away by it all. It sends a strong message, and is one of the few things that can actually make me shed a tear. I've read this countless times, now, and it will eternally have a place in my collection.

Harvey Feinstein is a national treasure. This play holds up even after all the time since it was published. Beautifully written, easily quoted.
