On A Roll At Disney World: Touring Walt Disney World In A Wheelchair

Synopsis

If you, or someone you know are planning a trip to Disney World, determining what you can or can't do if you rely on a wheelchair or ECV for mobility assistance can be a challenge. A lot of information you find is very vague in terms of what to expect accessibility-wise at each attraction. This book will help you learn all about wheelchair and ECV accessibility throughout Walt Disney World and its four theme parks. Find out what to expect at each ride and attraction in terms of the queue, ride vehicles and attraction seating. Pictures are included.

Customer Reviews

I am a huge Disney enthusiast and ever since taking a trip to Disney World in 2004 with my husband who is a paraplegic due to Spina Bifida, I have spent a lot of time doing research to see just how much of the parks my husband could experience since he is unable to walk. With our research, he has gotten to ride a lot of more of the rides at Disney than he ever thought he could do.
