MARY POPE OSBORNE is the author of the New York Times number one bestselling Magic Tree House series. She and her husband, writer Will Osborne (author of Magic Tree House: The Musical), live in northwestern Connecticut with their three dogs. Ms. Osborne is also the coauthor of the companion Magic Tree House Fact Trackers series with Will, and with her sister, Natalie Pope Boyce. A SAL MURDOCCA has illustrated more than 200 children's trade and text books. He is also a librettist for children's opera, a video artist, an avid runner, hiker, and bicyclist, and a teacher of children's illustration at Parsons School of Design. Sal lives and works in New York with his wife, Nancy.

My son loves this series - good book!

grandson loves it

My 6 year old first grader son is in love with these books. He reads a book in about 2 days. I couldn't believe how interested he was in reading. Perfect adventure books for kids!

Not the best story in the series, but still enjoyable.

My 3rd grade son (almost 4th grade) really struggles with reading. But he loves the magic tree house books. So far it's the only series of books that he will read on his own.

Third grade granddaughter was afraid to read Kindle book because it sounded scary. I read it and convinced her to read it on the Kindle with the female reading it to her. She loved it! Since we are training a Lab dog we especially liked the part where they trained a dog. That St. Bernard was full of energy and sounded just like ours. We liked when the kids became dogs also. What an imagination!

Mary Pope Osborne's Magic Tree House book #46 Dogs in the Dead of Night is another great read for children. My children love the entire Magic Tree House series and always are very excited to read the newest book. In this book, Jack and Annie are on a mission to help Teddy and Kathleen, and are taken back in time to a very cold and avalanche prone Swiss Alps setting. They end up training a Saint Bernard Dog in a very unique way. This is the second in a series of 4 books to help save Penny the Penguin. Great fun to read out loud with emerging readers, I highly recommend this book.

We love all Magic Tree House Books!!
