Award-winning illustrator Steadman high-jumps onto the current bandwagon of books about wine.

Animating Steadman's ebullient, bristling, irreverent prose are kinetic, gracefully sensuous, and utterly inimitable images that pulsate with enthusiasm for his chosen subject. This visual feast is appropriate accompaniment to Steadman's text, which keenly enables the reader to vicariously experience wineries from Bordeaux to Oporto and on to Napa Valley (imbibing at least in spirit along with the author). Anyone with a soupçon of joie de vivre will be besotted with Steadman's first-class style as raconteur, wine expert, and travel writer. Fine printing and production increase the book's appeal. Alice Joyce

For the oenophile with a sense of humor: In The Grapes Of Ralph ($35.00; Oct. 1996; 224 pages; ISBN 0-15-100245-2) the wicked cartoonist and illustrator offers a tour of the wine countries of the world and their leading denizens. Accompanying the narrative is Steadman's warped, witty art: Top-hatted Frenchmen inserting their sniffers into wineglasses; German grapes exploding in a heatwave--a perfect subject for Steadman's blotchy inkblot style; and in Australia, a portrait of of a woman known as Long Flat Red, who dyed her wardrobe in her husband's vintage of 1894.

Great book. Not just art. Lots of entertaining stories. Ralph also details the planting and maintenance of his first vineyard in England.

Vintage Steadman. Hilarious, merciless and full of surprises.

I bought this as a gift. There was a little wear and tear, as described, but the book was everything I'd imagined. Ralph Steadman drawings and wine? Sold.

Book was in excellent condition

Well, what can I say - I love Ralph Steadman's honest window view and brutal take on the worlds he visits - running them through his fractured fractured kaleidoscopic mind. Entertaining and brilliant.

Great book to give as a gift to a Ralph Steadman fan!

A fascinating book, and a great gift for the guy who appreciates Steadman and wine. I included a wire book stand to display book opened to favorite pages...too cool to stay closed on a shelf!

A great read with a wine or two, however, too much Steadman isn't good for you!
