"[T]he work of one of the leading fumetti cover artists, Emanuele Taglietti, remains highly collectable and has been brought together for the first time in this book, providing a long-overdue look at this forgotten genre." — CoffinCuties.com

Emanuele Taglietti studied stage design at the Experimental Center of Cinematography in Rome.

Inspired by the art of Frank Frazetta and Averardo Ciriello, he became a comic book cover artist for such magazines as Playcolt, la Poliziotta, Vampirissimo, and Sexy Favole. His realistic style and ability to cross genres have defined his work. Mark Alfrey is an art collector, a sculptor, and a former award-winning special effects makeup artist for such shows, movies, and artists as Angel, Buffy the Vampire, Men in Black, and Marilyn Manson. He is based in West Hollywood, California.

Fantastic art work.

Production values fine and the art is top quality Men's Adventure Mag work - occasionally going a bit or more further than US men's adventure mags art did.

Beautiful artwork!

Awesome! Many pages of great art!

As a book on illustration should be...packed with full page, well reproduced illustrations.

This is a great collection of art from a terrific artist whose work is not as well known as his talent and skill deserve. This book features over 100 full-color images of Taglietti's art, about half of which are full page pictures. The pictures are grouped by the book or comic series which they were from, with a little history on each series giving some context to the images, which I also enjoyed. The print quality and binding are top-notch. All in all a great collection for fans of pulp art.

Excellent book! The Italian MASTER of exploitation art is celebrated here in an amazing career spanning collection. This book is a MUST for anyone who appreciates the pulp era of art. The paintings in this tome are loaded with exactly what is described in the title of the book. Sex and Horror! Taglietti's mastery of color and movement is apparent in every piece presented.
