"Culture Smart! has come to the rescue of hapless travellers." Sunday Times Travel

Terttu Leney is a Finnish teacher, trainer, broadcaster, and writer. She currently works for the Foreign Office in London as a professional development coordinator, preparing British diplomats and businessmen for overseas postings. After graduating in Russian and Swedish language and literature from the School of Slavonic and East European Studies, University of London, Terttu completed a postgraduate diploma in language training at the University of Westminster. She has written several publications, including Teach Yourself Finnish, Finn Talk 1, and Finn Talk 2. She lives in London with her English husband and family.

Read this on my first flight to Helsinki and found the info very rudimentary and dated info. Regretted purchasing although not sure there is a better option for a first time traveller.

Excellent book. This was an interesting book. It is well written and I think it will be very helpful to read before I travel.

This is a pretty fun one and it hits the major points that i think it should hit pretty well. I have visited there myself & have relatives who live there & are from there and so I can say that this is a pretty good guide to "the motherland."

Nice overview of things Finnish, entertaining and a good read.

Fantastic travel snapshot book I bought a bunch for all the baltic states we went to and we used them inbetween travel to get ready

This little book is a must have before you go to Finland! The book covers everything you need to know, including places to go, things to see, and important historical facts! I love this book, it is an easy read and is so interesting, you don't want to put it down! I highly recommend this wonderful little book.

This has a lot of information about history and current customs and places to visit. It helped me learn more about my heritage.

As advertised - thanks.
