Memphis 2015 (The Food Enthusiast's Complete Restaurant Guide)

Synopsis

Sebastian Bond is the Food Enthusiast. This is another of his books with spot-on reviews of the most exciting restaurants in town. Some will merit only a line or two, just to bring them to your attention. Others deserve a half page or more. “Exciting” does not necessarily mean expensive. The area’s top spots get the recognition they so richly deserve (and that they so loudly demand), but there are plenty of “sensible alternatives” for those looking for good food handsomely prepared by cooks and chefs who really care what they “plate up” in the kitchen. For those with a touch of Guy Fieri, Bond ferrets out the best food for those on a budget. That dingy looking dive bar around the corner may serve up one of the juiciest burgers in town, perfect to wash down with a locally brewed craft beer. Whatever your predilection or taste, cuisine of choice or your budget, you may rely on Sebastian Bond not to disappoint. Bond dines anonymously at the Publisher’s expense. No restaurant listed in this series has paid a penny or given so much as a free meal to be included. Bon Appétit!

Customer Reviews

Really, don’t waste your money. I give tours downtown and people like to see reviews of restaurants downtown and the surrounding area. While this does give a few downtown. It includes clubs that do not serve food (or just bar food). Really disappointed in the book. It was not worth the money. You’re much better off purchasing the Memphis Magazine issue of dining in Memphis. It’s only about $5 and give so much more info and so many more restaurant reviews. Also, it is more of a booklet/pamphlet than a book. I'll most likely return this.
