If you are serious about writing screenplays. This book should be on your shelf. Much of it is common sense, but there are great insights by writers who have a record of success in this industry. It is great motivation.

I feel so much more normal as a prolific writer after reading this book! I'm so grateful to read of successful screenwriters, with their variable and personal techniques, sharing great tips and processes for being an effective screenwriter. Thank you, this will be a book I'll refer back to often.

when I've read this book I no longer feel awkward , not that I consider myself as a successful writer , but I could find the same problems a writer has to endure. Besides there are several techniques that I found very useful for my work :)

I highly recommend this book. Anybody daring to venture into the world of screenwriting must read this cover-to-cover if you plan on getting anywhere.
