Customer Reviews

Was looking for a handy pocket guide to avoid expensive data minutes while in Kyoto for 2 days - this book was it. Good suggestions for walking among various sites, helpful background to help plan activities and nice pull out map. It gave good hints on public transport that were easy to adjust to specific locations using local websites while in wifi area. Photos and short descriptions were good. Overall, a helpful guide for the top sites. If staying more than a few days, you may want a book with even more site info/history listed or use a city-specific visitor website.

Though not as descriptive as I would have liked, this book is still very informative. It even provides near by locations to visit, to each point of interest. The map is also useful in planning a trip, so as you read you can follow directions on the map. I would highly recommend this as well as Frommer's EasyGuide to Tokyo, Kyoto and Western Honshu.

Very helpful
