Camp Aphrodite (Realistic/Crossdressing): Doug is in his early-20s and down on his luck. He has been hired as a low-level cook at a girl's camp and luckily got in an employee cabin since he has nowhere else to turn to. Unfortunately, shortly after the gig starts he is fired due to an unacceptable food safety hazard. His new friends at camp do not want to see him become homeless and look for all ways possible. Fortunately, a certain girl that looks like she could be related to Doug didn't show up this year. With some makeover help, maybe Doug can take her place as a happy camper who loves cheerleading. Bikinis Over Brains (Realistic/Brainwashing): Landon has been hired to tutor Marie, the spoiled rich daughter of a millionaire. Learning about Algebra is the last thing Marie wants to do this summer. Can she talk Landon into relaxing a little and join her in the pool for some fun in the sun? More importantly, what happens when Marie's parents find out that Landon is borrowing Marie's clothes? Another Wish (Magic?/Memory Loss): Andrew is happy in life with his successful career, hot younger girlfriend, and a recent promotion but starts to feel the pressure of new responsibility. The company he works for, Mino Mills, is receiving a lot of backlash thanks to a recent acquisition. What happens when he makes a wish at the same time as someone in high school?
